Class Will

We, The Seniors of 1951, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath the following.

To Mr. Roberts we leave another and a better team.
To Mr. Kingsolver we leave the Seniors of 1952.
To the Faculty: We Leave.
To Miss Schlinker we leave our thanks, gratitude, and appreciation of her untiring efforts to make this our happiest year in high school.
To the Juniors we leave an empty room.
To the Sophomores we leave all the joys and sorrows that come to the Juniors and Seniors.
To the Freshmen the School Spirit that every class needs.
To the Eighth Grade we leave--and hope that they will leave--the building in one piece.

Leonard Casey leaves his position as class president to the most deserving Junior and his ability to wear clothes well to Stanley Howey.

Judith Clarke leaves her quiet and lady-like ways to Avalene King.

Frank Corum leaves his position as cheerleader to "Kayo" Kincaid, his friendliness to Wilma Bryant, and his beautiful hair to Joe Bill Schultz.

Billie Cunningham leaves her ability to dance to Diane Radke and her many friends to "Peggy" Renshaw.

Bob Daine leaves his initiative and his incentive for work to Bob Hammack and his "sax" to anyone who can appreciate it as much as he does.

Jerry Epperson leaves his dark curly hair to Robbie Lancefield and his ability to play basketball to Bob Maskalick.

Elizabeth Evans leaves her ability to speak French to anyone who thinks "English is Greek."

Lenora Fullerton leaves her soft voice to Leora Burke.

Margaret Gerard leaves her "quietude" to Jimmy Barrington.

Rosina Haberly leaves her reserved manner to Sue Wendorf.

Edwin Holt bequeaths his ambition to Sammy Brown and his love for airplanes to "Mr. Matt."

Margaret Howell wills her position in the office to Mary Ritchie and her place on the cheerleading team to Joyce Carrico.

Ivan Howitz leaves his "I don't know" to Jimmy Musgrove and his "all - A report card" to anyone who can preserve his record.

Lucy Hudson leaves her "half of Ted's brain" to Glenda, her straight hair to Sally Ring, and her sense of humor to Caroll Berry.

Harry Johnson leaves his good grades to John Tomaselli and his math problems to Billie Brigman.

Alexander Macdonald wills his pleasing personality to Jim Casey and his talent for "going steady" to Thomas Roberts.

John Macdonald wills his car to anyone who can drive it and his shyness to Frederic Coots.

Tommy Maskalick hands to Mike Fowler to position as manager of the basketball team.

Patricia Meyer leaves her ability to debate to Bonnie Brown and her "talent for wearing clothes well" to Norma Curtis.

Margaret Nauert leaves her sense of humor to Virginia Alford and her "kindness" to all those who desire to share it.

Sue O'Mera leaves her talents to her sister Alice and her winning smile to Laura Lee Fullerton.

Herby Pelton leaves his driver's license to the M. P. 's and his "endless questions" to Roy Fryxell.

Irvin Rider leaves his shyness to Edward Musgrove and his motor scooter to Glenn Brown.

Joe Roach leaves his "seat on the bench" to Jimmy Howell and his empty cans to Jim and Ed Musgrove.

Edith Roberts leaves her friendly disposition to Ruth Ann Maddox and her ability to cook to Barbara Morgan.

Gertrude Rouille wills her giggle to Glenda King and her laugh to Louise Foster.

Carlyn Schneidewind leaves her quiet ways to "Skippy" Pettay.

Henrietta Staples bestows upon Jean Thomas her athletic interests and upon Helen Johnson her interest in music.

Josephine Szabo wills her beautiful hair to her sister.

Kenneth Steinbacher leaves his appreciation of music to Miss Schlinker and his ability to make good grades to Jimmy Wendorf.

Leonard Stevens leaves his good grades in English to Mary Ellen Funk and his wonderful personality to Philip Rigrish.

Mary Taylor wills her favorite saying, "Oh Bells!" to "Mr. Matt" and her pleasantness to Joan Thomas.

This will was made as the result of sincere and honest research; may each item mentioned be respectfully received and sincerely appreciated.

The Senior Class of 1950-1951

Class Prophecy

We were the Seniors of '51,
Gone are the days of our high school fun.
Let us assume that its '61,
Look back through the years to see what we've done.

The kids asked Leonard to sing them a song,
The words were all right, but the tune was all wrong.

Judy was smart and as cute as could be,
She always liked children and now has three.

Frank was the jester of our Senior group.
Now he's with Godfrey--testing the soup.

Billie, a girl who might have done more,
Now is at work in a ten cent store.

The name Bob Daine we see in the news,
For with his sax he's "King of the Blues."

Jerry was the boy with basketball skill,
He's still dribbling, for he owns his own still.

"Liz" went to France--was the toast of Paree,
Now she's burning toast for Henri.

Lenora was alwas rather a quiet type,
She now brings her husband his slippers and pipe.

To be on the stage was Margaret's chief aim,
Now she's a burlesque queen--covered with fame.

Rosina's ambition was to become a nurse,
She got rather close--she's driving a hearse.

Edwin's ambition was to pilot a plane,
He now is chief bag boy on a passenger train.

Margaret Anne Howell to Stephens did go,
She came back home with a handsome beau.

Ivan's desire was to get in "Who's Who,
Now he is caretaker at the St. Looie Zoo.

Lucy, the girl with the cute little giggle,
Is now in the chorus. Boy, what a wiggle.

Gus may start with a lieutenant's bars,
But he will keep on working for a General's stars.

Skip started life as a plain army brat,
Now he aspires to be a Brass Hat.

Scotty had talent; he could fix anything,
But Scotty was fixed--when he gave HER a ring.

Tommy, the boy with the mechanical brain,
Is now shoveling coal on a steam-engine train.

In all of her grades, Pat has taken great pride,
She'd rather have a degree than to be someone's bride.

Peg Nauert's brownies fed this staff often,
She now sells them to the Ritz Carlton.

Sue was a girl who was Queen of Hearts.
Today she's /an actress of 2nd rate parts.

Herby Pelton's medical ambitions,
Have been temporarily postponed because of world conditions.

Starch was what Miss Schlinker fed Joe,
Now he's a Millionaire rolling in dough.

Edith's ambition is a housewife to be,
It won't take long for there's Jerry you see.

Trudy, the girl who always looked smart,
Has a high powered job in a fashion mart.

Irvin, the guy who was never late,
Is now engineer, on a fast moving freight.

Carlyn desired to achieve great success,
Now teaches Government with great thoroughness.

Henrietta Staples as sure as you're born,
Was a success playing her horn.

Ken, the boy who made straight A's,
Now works as a busboy stacking the trays.

"Red" thought he'd be a constructor in Beaver Dam,
But he's under contract to Uncle Sam.

"Jo" was the girl who had the good looks,
Now she's married and always cooks.

Mary's face is frequently seen,
On magazine covers and sometimes the screen.

Now that we've told you,
Of the things that we have done,
We're still proud to be
